

"Darcy Farrow." Tom Campbell and Steve Gillette wrote the song in 1965. It has been recorded by John Denver

D                      G                      D
Where the Walker runs down to the Carson Valley plain

D              G              EM                      A
There lived a young maiden, Darcy Farrow was her name

D                      G                      D
The daughter of old Dundee, and a fair one was she

G                      A                      D   a   g e m   d
The sweetest flower that bloomed o'er the range

D   (fifth fret)      G                      D
Her voice was as sweet as sugar can be

D              G              EM                      A
Her touch was as soft as a bed of goose down

D                      G                      D
Her eyes shone bright like the pretty lights

---

G                      A                      D A G   A      D
That shine in the night out at Yerington town

D                      G                      D
She was courted by young Vandermeer

D              G              EM      A
A fine lad was he, as I am to    hear

D                      G                      D
He gave her silver rings and lacy things

G                      A                      D A G   A      D
He promised to wed before the snows came that year

Optional.. INSTRUMENTAL D....G....D....G D A G EM A D

D G D

Her pony did stumble and she did fall

D G A EM

and Her dying touched the hearts of us one and all

D G D

Young Vandy in his pain put a bullet through his brain

G A D A G A D

We buried them together as the snows began to fall

D G D

They sing of Darcy Farrow where the Truckee runs through

D G EM A

They sing of her beauty in Virginia City too

D G D

At dusky sundown to her name they drink a round

G A D A G A D

And to young Vandy, whose love was true .
